BY MARGARET E. O'KELLEY

A Downriver Tribute to Deceased Veterans was held on May 25, 2003, at Michigan Memorial Park in Huron Township. "In grateful recognition of the sacrifices made by so many of our fellow Americans - of years of their youth or of life itself- in the military service of our country" was the focal point of the service.

The Officer of the Day was Ed Rushlow - American Legion Post #217. From the Pvt. James Donovan Post #7910 Larry Zimmerman led the Firing Squad, Ed

Gucwa served as Chaplain, Bob Collins and Leon Chassman served as Flag Raisers and Lorenzo Reid served as Bugler.

The following AMVETS Groups participated in the event: Disabled American Veterans, American Legion and Women's Auxiliary, Veterans of Foreign Wars and Women's Auxiliary, Vietnam Veterans of America, Vietnam Veterans of Michigan and the Polish League of American Veterans and Women's Auxiliary.

American Legion Post #337 and VFW Post #9363 of Flat Rock sponsored the cities Memorial Day Tribute on May 26, 2003.

The day began with a communal breakfast for all who were participating in the events of the day. Next was a parade to city hall, followed by a Ceremony of Remembrance. Keith Gardner of the American Legion served as Master of Ceremonies. Musical selections were played by both the Flat Rock High School Band and the Huron High School Band.

The Memorial Address was given by Ken Deigel - VFW Post #1138. Placing of the Wreaths was by local Veterans Organizations and Auxiliary's.

Reverend Evans Bently - Pastor flat Rock United Methodist Church delivered the prayer. The Salute to the Honored Dead was given by the Downriver Veterans Honor Guard. Taps were played by Jeff Thomas, District 4 Bugler and the Echo was by Mark Puchala. "The Wall" was sung by Bob Young and "America the Beautiful" was played by the Angel Bell Choir. The service was concluded by all holding hands and singing "God Bless America."

Those responsible for the Flat Rock Event were Benny Wenzel, Parade Marshall; George Balowski, Program Chairman; Robert G. Souva, Major USAF (Retired); and Honorary Chairperson, Florence Esten Kaufman (Artist/Sculptor).

Later, in the afternoon, an intimate Memorial Service was held in New Boston at the Samuel Adams Historical Museum by the Kenneth Miller Veterans of Foreign Wars Post #6040. Parents and Family of Kenneth Miller were in attendance, as were members of the community and several members of Post #6040.

The ceremony was led by Commander Lanny Parker. A wreath was placed on the Memorial Plaque by Dale Rickman and William Cripps in honor of those who have gone before us. The invocation was led by Chaplain Bob West. Boy Scout Troop #857 served as the Color Guard and led the Pledge of Allegiance.

The Plaque is located in front of the Historical Museum. The Museum was open for the ceremony and several residents took the tour.

A Thank You From the Darryl Schewe Family

I would like to start this off by saying I've been a resident in New Boston my entire life and on May 31, 2002, showed me once again why I chose to raise my kids here. My family and friends hosted a benefit for me and in memory of my husband, Darryl Schewe, who passed away April 17, 2003.

I cannot thank everyone enough for your sympathy and thoughtfulness. It's good to know that my community, family and friends are supporting me in such a time that's needed. I would like to thank all the people and businesses that contributed to this event, especially to all who worked/cooked to make it happen (you know who you are).

In alphabetical order are the donors and helpers who made this possible:

An extended thank you to Apple Charlie's for holding the benefit in your pavilion and for all you donated. To my employers Chapp & Bushey for all you've done - being so supportive and understanding. I'm truly sorry if there is someone I didn't mention who donated/helped in any way. Thank you. A special thank you to all the businesses in Romulus who made the Book/album "Lift Up Thine Eyes." THANK YOU.

Flat Rock School Board Election Results

BY SALLY A. CARTER

Norman Haase and James Clements won the two seats on the Flat Rock Community School Board election held June 9, 2003. The total votes were 159 for Haase and 146 for Clements. Lena Ballard came in third with 135 votes. Haase, an incumbent and the board vice president, won his third term. Clements won the seat vacated by Robert Almaguer, who chose not to seek re-election.

When asked what the greatest challenges facing them as board members would be, Haase responded, "Working with limited funds provided by the state. Our main challenge is budgeting, through no fault of our own."

Clements said the biggest challenge would be passing the sinking fund. He said his challenge would be, "Making sure people understood what's going on, and that they're not just hearing the rumors."

Both men were sworn in Monday night, although James Clements will not replace Mr. Almaguer until July 1, 2003.

Community Work Program Begins in 34th District Court Venues

An aggressive Community Work Program initiated by the 34th District Court that includes the venues of Belleville, Huron, Romulus, Sumpter and Van Buren is in full swing. Chief Judge Tina Brooks Green, Judge Brian A. Oakley, Judge David M. Parrott and Al Hindman, Court Director of Security, overseeing the program, gave the stamp of approval to launch the program on May 13. The program helps communities in the district by supplying a work force for projects that benefit the community.

Hindman said the 34th District Court Work Program has been in existence for the last 14 years, and supervised by the Romulus Department of Public Works employees since its inception.

"The entire program has been designed from the Romulus program," said Hindman. "The city of Romulus has set a great example for the other communities to follow. This will take the Work Program to the next level by taking a proactive stance in the communities."

Chief Judge Tina Brooks Green said the Work Program is a constructive, valuable resource available for use by a sentencing judge, district attorney or probation officer.

"The Work Program will allow the offender to repay his or her community through their work services," said Green. "It also allows offenders who have been fined and do not have the means to pay their costs to work on community-oriented projects in lieu of their debt." Green said the recipient agency is responsible for supervising the offenders and maintaining clear, precise and accountable records of their work.

34th District Court Judge Brian Oakley, Chief Judge Tina Brooks Green and Al Hindman, Director of Security and Work Program Overseer.

Departments of Public Works and Services from 8:00 a.m. until 2:00 p.m. every day except Friday.

"The communities are being assigned a group of people that can handle various work duties in each community that would otherwise go unattended due to the lack of manpower," said Hindman. "It costs $6 per day to monitor an offender sentenced to perform Community Service, compared to $45 per day for a person sent to jail."

Community service workers can paint city buildings, keep roadways clean of litter and debris, as well as maintenance of cemetery grounds, fairgrounds, baseball fields and animal shelters.

Licensed skilled trades participants can help with cement work, carpentry, drywalling, electrical, plumbing and tile work.

Work program participants must obey the Court sanctioned rules and regulations. Failure to report for the Work Program will result in a warrant being issued for the absent participants arrest.

Judge Oakley said that both skilled and unskilled labor would be supplied through the work program participants assigned by the Court for some violation of the law. This community service work is performed by an offender for a non-profit or governmental agency and without monetary compensation.

"This program gives the offender some sense of belonging in their community by having paid the community back for their crime," said Judge Oakley.

The five venues, by proclamation, have agreed to participate in the year-round program. Each venue will have an assigned day with up to a maximum of 14 people per team. The teams will work through the community

In Their Own Words...

Us Girl Scouts, Fil Romero, Allie Romero, Megan Dickens and Autumn Gonzales, from Junior Troop #818 would like to present this TV/VCR and Sun Shelter for education. To get these for you we did many different things. First, we decided to do a bottle and can drive in Country Meadows Estates. Sue Romero, one of our assistant leaders, made up a flyer. Latonna Gonzales got many copies made for us to pass out. Next, we passed out the flyers in Country Meadows. Then the following week we picked up the cans and bottles that some people had left for us. Next we went to a couple of grocery stores and got the deposit for them. Finally we bought the two items.

In doing this for you, the Huron Fire Department, us four girls have achieved our Bronze Awards, the highest achievement a Junior Girl Scout can get! In conclusion, we would like to thank the people of Country Meadows for donating those many cans and bottles. We hope you like your gifts!

Tips from Tina

- 1. Stain guard - before long trips, spray the front of your car, where the bugs collect, with nonstick cooking spray. This will stop bugs from sticking, and bugs and dirt can be easily washed off.
- 2. Tree sap on decks - to remove it, apply mineral spirits with an old rag, rub and wash off with dishwashing liquid and water (1 teaspoon of dishwashing liquid to 1 quart hot water). Rinse well.
- 3. Gas grills - before you light the barbecue, spray the grill rack with non-stick cooking spray. This works great on gas or charcoal grills. Apply a liberal coat and food won't stick, making cleaning easier.
- 4. Cleaning your hands after painting - use vegetable oil to clean oil-based
- paints off hands. The oil is safer than paint thinner, has no fumes and is mild to the skin. After using the oil, wash well with soap.
- 5. Rattles and teethingers - A great place to wash these is in the dishwasher. Tie them in the top basket and wash with the dishes.
- 6. Fleas out of the dog house - To deter fleas, sprinkle salt in the crevices of the dog house.
- 7. Remove rust from chrome - works great on car chrome. Take a crumpled ball of aluminum foil and rub the rust spot until it disappears.

6-8 cups BROCOLLI - chopped small

1/2 cup dried CHERRIES

1/4 cup SUNFLOWER SEEDS

3-4 slices BACON - cooked and chopped

3-4 GREEN ONIONS - chopped

Combine all of the salad ingredients in a large bowl. Pour dressing over salad and stir to mix evenly. Chill up to 1 hour.

Dressing

1 cup MAYO

1 cup RANCH DRESSING

3 tbs. RED WINE VINEGAR

2 tbs. SUGAR

1 tsp. SALT

Combine the ingredients in a jar and shake until smooth.

Horoscopes

William Grover

Gemini May 22 - June 21

Final days in the sun have you asking where it could be. Remain hopeful that sun will shine in the future. Take time to help one who helps you find out the truth behind recent change. Caution Please. 0018

Cancer June 22 - July 23

So what if sun is in your corner. Unless it shines overhead it won't light up your path. Lost money in washer goes down the drain. Look carefully, you may find lost socks. Children cry. 4387

Leo July 24 - Aug 23

A week to rest is not what you need right now so don't expect it. Backyard remains quiet and you wonder why you bothered to open your pool. No heat to beat yet? Keep spouse happy? 0000

Virgo Aug 24 - Sept 23

Time nears when you must face the truth. Many support your motive but no one will forgive. Keep in light of the times and stop worrying about foreign affairs when you can't handle your own. 6755

Libra Sept 24 - Oct 23

Life takes on a new twist as you begin new season. Be prepared to welcome summer although no idea when. Lessons taken to heart won't help you now. Ask others to find right spot to satisfy your needs. 6778

Scorpio Oct 24 - Nov 22

Less is best unless you're talking about the sun. Recent events has you in disarray. Afterthoughts should have been forethoughts but all know how your mind works. Time to flip on the switch? 1287

Sagittarius Nov 23 - Dec 21

Lackluster days seem to be your only escape for your misgivings. Spouse asks for help but you unable to return the favors. Think fall, maybe it will arrive soon. Be prepared to follow. 8767

Capricorn Dec 22 - Jan 20

Celebrate good and bad times with family and friends. Leave the enemies out of the picture. Separate with pennies from the nickles and decide which to spend - save rest for rainy day? 9007

Aquarius Jan 21 - Feb 19

Lasting memories should be forgotten, except ones of the sun. Time to start AC? Keep children away from danger but not from learning valuable lesson. Lost ring found? But whose is it? 2333

Pisces Feb 20 - Mar 20

Vacant land not worth a hill? Ask for another opinion, keep sanity in tasks you plan to do. Keep spouse aware of all your needs but don't expect any help as he has forgotten you. 5532

Aries Mar 21 - April 20

Look north but not south and decide where to go. Be ready to change thought mid-stream especially if fishing for new biat. Children take all your time this week, so plan another time for fun. 2875

Taurus April 21 - May 21

Leaking faucets. Take time to fix but job is easy if you knowhow to turn off the water. Basic source of news is not reliable so don't be alarmed by what you hear. Old truck drive in circle. Danger looms. 1400

Al Fresco

Georgette Heron-Willoughby

Everybody will attend a picnic or barbecue during the summer months and are usually asked to bring something. This salad is perfect for a gathering.

Warmer weather means children are outside playing and riding bikes. Please watch out for them when you drive.

K of C Selects Knight of Year

On May 18, 2003 the Knights of Columbus of Flat Rock selected their Knight of the Year and the Family of the Year. The Annual Awards Dinner is the top social event of the year.

This year William H. (Bud) Brinkmeier is the Knight of the Year. He has been a member of the Knights for 40 years and is still very active in both the 3rd and 4th degree organizations. He held about every chairmanship in the council. He is currently the financial secretary of the council and past faithful navigator of the 4th degree.

The family of the year, Norman and Marilyn O'Kray, have been active in youth activities. Norm with the help of Marilyn have chaired the substance abuse poster contest, basketball free throw, essay contest, and all other youth programs.

“Flat Rock Recreation” - Bowling Alley

The bowling alley named Flat Rock Recreation was built in 1939. Originally, it was a rectangular building 50 feet by 150 feet. The roof trusses which span the 50 foot width were built on site by the Bodary Builders' crew, using hundreds of 2x6's, 2x4's and 1/2 by 12" bolts. The curved trusses were raised by manpower, using a tall pole which was stabilized with braces and a block and tackle. The trusses each weighed hundreds of pounds.

The building was built in partnership by Andrew Bodary and Harvey Wagar—a partnership that lasted until Harvey was drafted into the Army during World War II.

Originally, the pin setters were manual. Young people were hired to return the bowling balls and pick up the pins to slide them into the rack that had to be pulled down after each frame was bowled. During the war years, it was hard to find pin setters. Two girls, Margaret Willard and Irene Greer, just out of Flat Rock High School, worked lanes 1 and 2 for a number of years during the war and Bill Mallow, Alex Marx and Alden and Chuck Bodary worked the remaining six lanes, week in and wee out for 2 or 3 years. There were also some boys from Rockwood and South Rockwood, whose parents brought them at 6:30 and they were driven home at 11:30 by Andy Bodary. The first automatic pin setters were installed in 1957. Lou Feller and Paul Greer were trained to operate and maintain the new setters, which were a great labor-saving improvement.

Monday nights were ladies' leagues, Tuesday and Wednesday nights were mens' leagues. In the early years, Thursday night was the league from the Waltz and New Boston Lutheran Churches. Friday night was the Flat Rock Ford Motor Company League. Saturday morning was make-up time for the Ford League, and the rest of Saturday and Sundays were open bowling. And, of course, there were the “jackpot games” that were played after the leagues finished, often until well after midnight.

Betty Matthews ran a lunch counter and served hot dogs, coffee, pop, and homemade apple pie, baked by Matilda Dugan.

The addition at the front of the building was added about 1950 which housed a barbershop that was manned for many years by Pat Tigie. There were also two small offices added that housed the State Farm Insurance office run by Mel Isabel, the early Bat Rack and many other small businesses through the years.

There were many managers over the years: Gene Littler, Irving Peter-nell, Lou Feller, the Paul Greers, the Butlers, the Chinchaks, Jerry Floss, and Jim Bodary, who is the current owner.

The bowling alley was closed about 1975.

Thanks to Paul Greer and Alden Bodary for their excellent memories!
